

Championship Performance.

Your ride deserves nothing less than world-class suspension.

How good are Eibach springs, Multi-Pro-R2 coil-overs and other vital suspension components? Well, think of it this way: In 2007, Eibach-equipped race cars captured Drivers' Championships in Formula 1, NASCAR Nextel Cup, Champ Car, the IRL and the World Rally Championship—just to name a few.

The Eibach parts we make to give your car its winning edge—are made with the same top-quality materials, painstaking craftsmanship, and bulletproof durability that took all those drivers to victory. To learn more—visit Eibach.com and take a high-speed tour inside Eibach USA.

New! Multi-Pro-R2

For the ultimate in tunable suspension performance, Eibach has developed Multi-Pro-R2 Coil-overs, specially tuned spring/damper units that allow you to extract the last ounce of cornering power from your late model Mustang.
